

November 10th - November 14th

Weekly Class News

Mrs. Heather & Ms. Samantha

Highlights

We started learning about the first Thanksgiving as we studied Native Americans. We made feather headdresses and read lots of stories about how the Native Americans helped the Pilgrims. We also studied the letter K and learned about kangaroos. The kids really enjoyed jumping like kangaroos. In addition we studied the numbers 7 & 8 by playing some number games, and the kids earned stickers by finding the right numbers.

This upcoming week we will learn more fun things as we continue through the alphabet with the letter L and learn more about Thanksgiving turkeys. Hopefully we'll have a visit from the llamas down the road on Friday - weather permitting. The kids have always loved seeing the live llamas in the past, so I hope it will be a nice enough day for them to visit us. Also the kids will make craft turkeys to take home, and we will even learn a song about turkeys.

As we get closer to Thanksgiving, don't forget about the upcoming preschool brunch and closing dates.

One last thing - thank you all for your help with our chicken barbecue. Money is still coming in, but I'll give you a final count when we have totaled everything up.

If you have any questions or concerns about your child's class, please feel free to talk to me (Mrs. Heather) any time.
